Finally Found a Piece To Play for the Senior Recognition Concert

It's called Aires Ibericos para violonchelo solo: Homenaje a Georgina Sanchez Torres. Unbelievably, even though it doesn't sound it, it's actually written by a french composer named Alain Lefebure who uses music in his medical career to help children with neurological disorders. He grew up in Paris and has had a quite interesting life. So this piece was composed In April of 2010, it's quite modern, which is what I wanted for this performance.

Here's a link so you can listen to it if you so choose.
